Advertisers must have their copy for the Evening Standard the evening before the day on which the advertisement is to appear in order to insure publication.

WANTED—Clean white rags at the Standard.

John Van Sickle Better—After being in this city for more than a week attending John Van Sickle, his brother-in-law, who was operated on recently for appendicitis, D. L. Edwards, a prominent farmer of Malad, Idaho, will return to his home this morning. Mr. Edwards was accompanied on his visit to this city by his sister, who will return with him this morning. Mr. Van Sickle is still confined to his bed in the Ogden General hospital, but has been showing such marked improvement during the last two or three days that Mr. Edwards decided to return.

Call Allen, phones 22, for carriages for funerals and operas. Private calls a specialty. Also prompt delivery of baggage. 412 25th.

For Sale—Old, mats. Good to put under carpets. Inquire Standard office.

Pneumonia Threatens Leedom—Taken ill several days ago with a sore throat and a heavy cold, C. M. Leedom, proprietor of the Falstaff Cafe, has for the last three days been confined to his bed threatened with an attack of pneumonia. His condition is rapidly becoming much better and it is thought that all danger of serious trouble has been averted, and that he will be able to return to his place of business in a few days.

Flanders Funeral—The funeral services over the remains of Frederick C. Flanders will be held this afternoon at the Richey Funeral Chapel at 3:30. The Masonic lodge will have charge of the services. Rev. Fleetwood officiating. The body will be shipped at 6 o'clock p. m., to his old home in Vermont.

HOWLEY TO CONTROL THE RIO GRANDE

Denver, March 24.—Sensational reports reached here today of important changes in the control of the Denver & Rio Grande and the Western Pacific railroads. The Times this evening says:

Edwin Hawley is said to have secured several important holdings in the Denver & Rio Grande, and is now declared to be in a position to dictate the traffic policy of that road and the Western Pacific.

It has been confirmed officially that Mr. Hawley is a large stockholder in the Western Pacific, but his holdings in that road are not sufficient to give control. His domination of the affairs of the Western Pacific is declared to be due to the acquisition of the stock in the Denver & Rio Grande, and his position is said to be so strong that he recently named a vice-president for the Denver & Rio Grande over the head of President E. T. Jeffrey.

The Western Pacific has $75,000.

The greatest thing in the world is the plain truth.

600 of stock outstanding. The Denver & Rio Grande acquired $50,000,000 or two thirds of the entire issue. The Denver & Rio Grande then deposited all of this stock with the Bankers' Trust company of New York as collateral security for its recently authorized $150,000,000 bond issue. The deal ties up the Western Pacific stock so that no person or company can secure a majority of it without acquiring control of the Denver & Rio Grande. Mr. Hawley got into the Western Pacific through the acquisition by that company of the Alameda & San Joaquin Valley railroad but he owns less than $25,000,000 stock, as that is all that is in the hands of the public.

Edwin Hawley is reported in the east as having either acquired a controlling interest in the Denver & Rio Grande, thereby getting the control of the Western Pacific, or has made an alliance with George Gould.

Last November T. M. Schumaker of the El Paso & Southwestern railroad was elected vice president of the Denver & Rio Grande and Western Pacific and put in charge of the traffic department of both roads, and it is learned that he was called east to confer with Mr. Hawley and received his instructions from Mr. Hawley personally.

CONTOS ESTATE ASKS MORE INFORMATION

A demurrer to the petition filed several days ago by Tom Torcas in the matter of the estate of John Contos, who was killed in this city more than a year ago by Nick Vacos in a quarrel following his refusal to extend a mortgage he held on Vacos' property, was yesterday filed with the county clerk by David Mattson, administrator of the estate of Contos, on the grounds that the petition does not state facts sufficient to justify Torcas in requesting the relief he asks. Torcas, in his petition, claims that he had been negotiating the completion of a real estate deal with Contos prior to the latter's death and that he had already paid over to Contos some of the money. He is asking for a settlement of the deal.

AWARDS DAMAGES IN ANCIENT CASE

After being out for several hours, the jury in the case of Mrs. Annie E. Rowe against Mrs. Annie Palmer and O. J. Stillwell for damages in the sum of $2,000 for being ejected from a rooming house in August, 1901, returned last night with a verdict of $500 damages for the plaintiff and an additional $256.63, interest, making a total of $756.63 judgment given Mrs. Rowe.

For the past nine years the case has been dragging through the various courts of the state, favorable decisions for the plaintiff and appeals and reversals in higher courts having been the rule, and on Wednesday the case again came back to the second court. Judge J. A. Howell, of the second district, was on the bench, and held court in the county commissioners room, owing to the fact that the district court room was being used by the visiting judge of the sixth district, John F. Chidester. The arguments in the Rowe-Palmer case were concluded yesterday afternoon at about 4:30 o'clock and the case was given to the jury a little later.

Judge Chidester presided at the continuation of the case of the Hooper Irrigation company, against Atwood et al, the evidence in which was taken more than a week ago, and the arguments of counsel on both sides were concluded. The case will in all probability go into the hands of the jury today.

CAIRO WELCOMES AMERICAN HERO

Cairo, Egypt, March 24.—Colonel Roosevelt's visit excites much interest here, not only among the many Americans who have arrived at Cairo purposely to see the ex-president, but among the natives generally, that he is taking measures to avoid demonstrations.

Great crowds gathered about the entrance of Shepherd's hotel, where the Roosevelt family are quartered, and twice today, Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt were compelled to leave the building by the garden entrance to keep away from the crowds.

Half an hour was spent this evening in conversation with the Khedive who found the keenest interest in Roosevelt's hunting tour. Politics were not discussed, but there was an exchange of views on irrigation and agriculture. The conversation was conducted in English.

RESCUE GIRL FROM SLAVERY

After being beaten and otherwise being cruelly treated, and starved and practically in a condition of slavery for more than 6 months, according to the story she told the police, Laura Bouterbaugh, an 18-year-old girl who came to this city six months ago, eloping from Chicago with a Japanese named T. Komado, with whom she has been living ever since at 2942 Pingree avenue, last night was able to escape from the tyranny to which she has long been subjected through the help of the police and with a ticket sent her by her almost heart-broken parents returned last night over the Union Pacific to Dayton, Ohio, where her parents are now living.

A tale so horribly cruel as to almost rival belief was that told the police last night by Miss Bouterbaugh, after she had been taken from her life of bondage and shown the letter and ticket from her parents in Dayton. With tears of relief and gratitude in her eyes she told how she had been an employee of the Sigsbee-Corper Department store in Chicago, and how, meeting the Japanese at a restaurant where she took her meals, was induced to come to the West on a promise of a good home and everything she could desire.

For a long time, she said, she resisted the efforts of the Japanese to induce her from the Windy City, but at last, believing the man to be sincere, racial pride was overcome by her hard circumstances and she accordingly eloped with the Japanese to this city. For awhile the man, whom she says makes his living by gambling, treated her fairly well, but after only a month or two he began to beat her, refused to allow her sufficient to eat and her life became a nightmare of horror.

Four months ago, the parents, not having heard from their daughter, whom they supposed was earning her own livelihood in Chicago, began to make investigations and found that she had long ago left Chicago. The police all over the country were notified, but to no avail and although the case looked hopeless, the old folks refused to give up the search. Lining efforts to locate their wayward child led to nothing for four months, but last night the police, following up a clue on which they had been working for some days, went to the Pingree street house and took the girl away. The Japanese was not present, and the girl, shedding tears of joy, refused to even wait to say good-bye.

She was taken in charge by the police and presented with a ticket to the home of her waiting parents in Dayton, Ohio, and sufficient funds to last her on her long journey. As no effort to make a complaint against the Jap has been taken by her parents, no effort toward prosecution can be made by the local authorities.

HALLOWED DAY IS OBSERVED

With heavy banks of flowers, potted plants and artistically arranged draperies in the Catholic and Episcopal churches yesterday one of the most hallowed days in the history of the Christian era was celebrated in impressive manner. Every church in the city held special services commemorative of the scenes in the life of Christ occurring on Holy Thursday especially the last supper, when the decorations and music were especially elaborate all day yesterday.

Today, on the anniversary of the death of the Saviour, Christians throughout the world will do homage in their various places of worship and preparations for the usual services of the day have been made by every Christian church in the city. Special services were held in the Episcopal and Catholic churches, where today probably what is the longest service of the year to the devout Christian, is held, and the beautiful decorations of yesterday will be removed during the night, leaving the churches in an aspect of sorrow and repentance for today's services.

All churches held special services last night large congregations turning out in every case. Union services were held last night in the First Presbyterian church to an unusually large congregation. Rev. John Edward Carver speaking on the life of Christ. A number of special numbers were rendered in pleasing style, with special music and responses by the choir.

Magic Results From "Robinson" Bath

"Keep Pores Open, Be Young At 90," Says Eminent Physician. The results produced by the Robinson "Thermal" Bath inside of 30 minutes are almost beyond belief. It has been found for instance, in the case of rheumatism, that uric acid in the blood can be extracted from the system completely in a few days' time.

Eczema can be completely cured within a week. It is now possible for any man or woman to have Robinson Thermal baths at home at a cost of only a few cents. The Robinson Thermal Bath Cabinets are on exhibition and for sale in Ogden at Wm. Driver & Son Drug Co.

Go and examine them. Ask the dealer also for the book of the century, "The Philosophy of Health and Beauty," price two dollars, but given away free for a limited time. If you cannot go and see these wonderful cabinets send your name and address to the Robinson Mfg. Co., Suite 35 Snowflake Bldg., Toledo, Ohio, for full illustrated information, free.

Similar results are obtained in cases of kidney trouble, neuralgia, pimples, all skin diseases, throat and lung trouble, insomnia, constipation, lumbago and bad colds.

One dollar a day for old soldiers incapacitated in the service is provided in a bill reported favorably from the house committee on military affairs by Rep. Sherwood, Democrat, Ohio.

LIGHTWEIGHTS ARE READY FOR GONG

Only four days more remaining until the night when Pete Sullivan, the Fall River, Mass. lightweight, and Tommy Dawson, the Irishman of the same weight with the brilliant record, will meet in their scheduled 20-round bout at the Ogden theater, and Dawson, who has been faithfully training for more than two weeks is already in the pink of condition and ready to enter the contest at a moment's notice. All that remains for Manager Tommy Walker, who has been supervising the daily workouts of the little Irishman, to do now is to keep his man as he is, and yesterday Dawson went through about 15 rounds of fast boxing and bag punching. In addition to his regular sparring partner, a Greek boy yesterday showed up and boxed three rounds with Dawson.

Followers of the squared circle in Ogden who have been watching the daily training stunts of the little Irishman are delighted with the condition and form shown by him. Although he was going continually yesterday afternoon for more than one hour at the end of that time he was scarcely blowing. Tennessee Kid, who had been assisting Dawson in his training, will be seen in the preliminary, which, according to present arrangements is to go six rounds, and his opponent will probably be Young Farley, of this city. Sullivan has been training steadily for some time in Salt Lake City and reports from his camp say that he is in prime condition and full of confidence as to his ability to win from the doughty Irishman.

While so far but little betting has been done on the match, a deft hand out by Manager Armstrong, who looks after Pete Sullivan's interests when he was in the city several days ago, to the effect that he would like to place some money on Sullivan at 10 to 8, was yesterday taken up by Tommy Walker, when he deposited at the Falstaff Cafe $200 at the figure named. So far no one has appeared to take any of the money.

Preparations for a special train from Salt Lake are said to be going on and it is expected that the Lion Shamrocks of Pete Sullivan will turn out in force to see him box the Irishman. Owing to the great record held by Dawson, Pete is particularly desirous of winning and should he do so it will undoubtedly increase his prestige a great deal.

ELEVEN AFTER NATURALIZATION

Completely forgetting the low-lying farms, the picturesque windmills and the sturdy dykes which make life in their fatherland possible, in the pleasures of life in the "Land of the free and the home of the brave," where all men are equal, eleven sons of Holland, arrayed in the garb of America and sufficiently educated in the language, forms and customs of the country to have lost the awkward movements of the new arrival in the country, yesterday appeared in the county clerk's office, in town of G. J. S. Abels, for the purpose of renouncing allegiance to Holland and taking out papers of naturalization in the United States.

In addition to the eleven men yesterday applying for first papers, one man, Bernard Herstra, yesterday appeared for his second papers entitling him to citizenship in the United States. This is the second bunch of prospective citizens brought into taking the steps necessary to make them citizens of America by Mr. Abels, and after his friends had been provided with the necessary papers and had all been signed up yesterday, he smilingly departed with the remark that he would be back soon with more citizens from old Holland. Following are the names of those applying yesterday: Arthur Van Werkom, Mrs. Hille Krutmoos, Andrius Barondrecht, Cornelius Royn, Nanno Orsell, Derk Krutmoos (son of Mrs. Krutmoos) and Jakob Boeking. In spite of the unpronounceable names, the applicants are partly "Americanized" already.

HERRICK SCORES REPUBLICANISM

Cleveland, March 24.—The Republican administration was arraigned here tonight before the Tippecanoe club by former Governor Myron T. Herrick who charged it with gross extravagances, and assented the high tariff was necessitated by the immense revenue required by unbusinesslike government methods.

Mr. Herrick was preceded by Jas. R. Garfield, former secretary of the interior, who warned the Republican party the county was impatient for the fulfillment of its pledges and in action or makeshift legislation would not be tolerated.

"Any department of the government could be run by a man who could run a bank or a factory at one-half of the cost of the present system," said Mr. Herrick.

"There has been a great outcry about the high tariff but that tariff was framed by men who know they must have an enormous revenue to support the gross extravagance of the government. One of the greatest menaces confronting us today is the great bonded debts which in time, must break down credit."

CONCLUDE PASSION WEEK'S OBSERVANCE

This evening at 8 o'clock the concluding service at the Congregational church will be held, for the Holy week series of special services. A quartet, composed of Mrs. Cassidy, Miss Canady, Miss Hergert and Miss Henderson will sing as well as the choir. The communion services, in which the churches unite, will follow the regular service. Mr. Elderkin's subject will be "Beyond the Upper Room."

DEMOCRATS NAME CLARK

Washington, March 24.—With scarcely the semblance of a struggle, the Democratic members of the house tonight nominated the following four minority members of the enlarged rules committee: Champ Clark of Missouri, 125 votes; Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, 102; Lincoln Dixon of Indiana, 99; John J. Fitzgerald, of New York, 98.

A long list of candidates received scattering votes. Representative Siveren of Texas received 69, the highest number given to an unsuccessful aspirant. The total vote of the caucus was 140 and the number necessary to elect was 71.

The expected fight on Representative Fitzgerald for his attitude on the rules question at the beginning of the present congress, when he with twenty-three other Democrats left the leadership of Champ Clark and voted with the Republicans materialized early in the meeting but failed of any definite result.

Oppose Fitzgerald's. Representative Sims of Tennessee headed the faction opposed to the election of Fitzgerald and introduced a resolution to instruct Democratic members to support a resolution to provide the election by the house of a committee to select all the standing committees. The power of selection is now vested in the speaker.

The maximum strength shown by the followers of Sims was 39, which they polled against a motion to adjourn. The Sims resolution did not come to a vote as a motion to adjourn was carried before he could get it up for consideration. The Sims resolution follows:

Resolved by the Democratic members of the house of representatives of the 61st congress in caucus assembled, that we hereby instruct the Democratic members of the rules committee selected by this caucus to support any resolution or bill seeking to take from the speaker of the house of representatives the power to appoint the standing committees of the house and that they use all honorable means to bring about such a change in the rules of the house as to have a committee on rules elected by the house whose duties it shall be to appoint all the standing committees thereof.

Called Another Caucus. When the caucus adjourned Mr. Sims announced he would circulate a call for another caucus to consider the resolution. Only twenty-five signatures under the rules are required to compel the holding of another caucus.

Mr. Sims was not in the best of humor over the manner in which his resolution was treated.

"They will find they are not through with this matter," he said.

"I shall take steps to have another caucus called to bring about such a change in the rules of the house as to have a committee on rules elected by the house whose duties it shall be to appoint all the standing committees thereof."

The minority leaders, Messrs. Champ Clark and Underwood, apparently were satisfied with the result of the caucus.

Washington, March 24.—The senate today passed the bill making appropriations for the support of the legislative, executive and judicial branches of the government. The bill

MANY LIVES SACRIFICED

Washington, March 24.—That six hundred thousand lives are sacrificed annually in this country on the altar of ignorance and neglect of sanitary laws, was asserted by Senator Owen in a speech in the senate today in support of his bill creating a department of health, with a cabinet official at its head.

Mr. Owen's address was based on the theory that the various health agencies of the government should be concentrated. He declared with proper attention to the prevention of contagion and to protection against the use of polluted water and impure and adulterated food, human life could be greatly extended.

In addition to the 600,000 cases of fatal illness annually Mr. Owen asserted an average of three millions were constantly sick in this country with preventable diseases.

"I don't care who the expert is," remarked Mr. Money of Mississippi, "I don't believe a word of what he says."

Mr. Owen having asserted hookworm could be cured by two doses of thymol at a cost of 25 cents, Senator Heyburn suggested there was one million dollars "now on tap" for the eradication of hookworm.

Mr. Gallinger thought that since there was so much money available to check the mysterious hookworm, there would be a corresponding increase in the disease.

Mr. Owen charged that there had been suppression of facts about the bubonic plague in San Francisco a few years ago, and he asserted such a course would not have been pursued if the matter had been in charge of a health department instead of a mere health bureau.

Loosen Up, Old Man!

Mr. Ciose—If I realized I had any vices, my dear I would swear off.

Mrs. Ciose—Then, for goodness sake, swear off that vice you have on your pocketbook.—Boston Transcript.

Cucumbers should be planted in hills four to six feet apart each way and eight or ten seeds to the hill. For pickles plant from June 1 to August 1. Never allow the fruit to ripen on the vines.
